

Research Seminars in General Psychology and Cognitive Neuroscience
("Forschungskolloquium für Absolventen, Doktoranden, und Mitarbeiter")

„General Psychology and Cognitive Neuroscience“

(Prof. Dr. Stefan R. Schweinberger)

Winter Term 2006/07

Place: Am Steiger 3/EG, SR 009

Contact: kathrin.wiese@uni-jena.de. For more information on current and past presentations see:
<http://www2.uni-jena.de/svw/allgpsy/researchseminars.htm>

Event Schedule

29.02.2007	Romi Zäske, Jena/Leipzig	Effects of attentional load on explicit and implicit memory for voices
22.02.2007	Jürgen Kaufmann, Jena	Neural correlates of face learning
15.01.2007	Nadine Kloth, Jena	Face adaptation
08.01.2007	Mireille Trautmann, Jena	Phonological and auditory processing in dyslexia as studied with EEG and fMRI
04.12.2006	Janek Lobmaier, Zurich	Faces in the mind: Featural and configural face representations in perception and imagery
27.11.2006	Dr. Peter Bublak, Jena	Attentional deficits in neurodegenerative diseases: Assessment based on a "theory of visual attention"
20.11.2006	Holger Wiese, Jena	The role of categories for person perception: Accessing semantic information about familiar and unfamiliar people
13.11.2006	Rasha Abdel Rahman, Berlin	Semantic knowledge shapes the perception and identification of faces and objects
06.11.2006	David Robertson, Jena	Audiovisual Integration in the recognition of familiar voices